

STREET & SMITH'S
SportsBusiness
JOURNAL

December 15, 2008

Faces & Places

From the IMG Intercollegiate Athletic Forum presented by SBJ/SBD

SHANA WITTENWYLER (3)

Southeastern Conference Commissioner Mike Slive participates in a one-on-one interview as part of the first day of the conference Wednesday at the Intercontinental, The Barclay in New York City. Slive said he has no intentions of leaving his SEC post: "I have a lot of energy and no thoughts about not doing this."

The athletic directors give their perspective in a panel Thursday morning: Joe Castiglione (left) of the University of Oklahoma, Ron Wellman of Wake Forest University, Lisa Love of Arizona State University and Jack Swarbrick of the University of Notre Dame.

From left: Mark Geddis, Collegiate Images executive vice president of content acquisitions and business development; Bob Vecchione, NACDA senior associate executive director; and Rob Temple, ESPN, vice president of sports management

SBJ STAFF

From left: Carolyn Schlie Femovich, Patriot League executive director; SEC Commissioner Mike Slive; Mike Aresco, CBS Sports executive vice president of programming; Anna Slive, IMG College director of marketing and business strategies; and Kim Ramsay, IMG College vice president for collegiate operations

SHANA WITTENWYLER (3)

Brian Bedford (left), XOS Technologies facilities sales manager; Heather Voight, JumpTV sales manager; and David Brown, Ohio State University associate athletic director for external relations

Mark Geddis (left), Collegiate Images executive vice president of content acquisitions and business development, and Gregory Myford, Penn State University associate athletic director for business relations and communications.

Facilities faces, from left: Tom Proebstle, Crawford Architects partner; David Miller, Crawford Architects director; and Chris Dunlavy, Brailsford & Dunlavy president

SBJ STAFF

Amy Perko, Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics executive director, and Graham Spanier, Penn State University president